

12724. Ériu: founded as the journal of the School of Irish Learning devoted to Irish philology and literature 63 (2013)
Royal Irish Academy

Rev. by

Pierre-Yves LAMBERT, in ÉtC 41 (2015), pp. 292-293.

12725. García Castillero (Carlos): Old Irish tonic pronouns as extraclausal constituents.

In Ériu 63 (2013), pp. 1–39.

12726. Mac Cárthaigh (Eoin): Mo mhallacht ort, a shaoghail (c. 1655): dán is a sheachadadh.

In Ériu 63 (2013), pp. 41–77.

By Cú Choigríche Ó Cléirigh. 42 qq., edited from RIA 24 P 27; with English translation, introduction, notes, and a discussion of the transmission of the poem.

12727. Ariztimuño (Borja), Egurtzegi (Ander): Remarks on the etymology of the Basque word for ‘swallow’ and its potential relation to Celtic.

In Ériu 63 (2013), pp. 79–90.

A criticism of the proposals by K. McCONE (in Sprachkontakt und Sprachwandel, 2005) and D. STIFTER (in Ériu 60), suggesting a Romance origin for the Basque word.

12728. Hoynes (Mícheál): The political context of Cath Muighe Tuireadh, the early modern Irish version of the Second battle of Magh Tuireadh.

In Ériu 63 (2013), pp. 91–116.

Discusses the date and circumstances of composition of the early modern Irish version in RIA MS 24 P 9, arguing it was produced c. 1398 for the Meic Dhiarmada of Magh Luirg.

12729. McManus (Damian): Surnames and scions: adjectival qualification of Christian names and cognomina in classical Irish poetry.

In Ériu 63 (2013), pp. 117–143.

1. Miscellaneous notes on mac/Mac, ó/Ó, inghean, and the designation of the head of the family, the ceann fine; 2. Independent adjectival qualification of Christian names, surnames and eponymous ancestors; 3. Adjectival qualification of Christian names and patronymics made up of two stressed elements; 4. Adjectival qualification of Mac/Mág surnames designating the ceann fine ‘head of the family’ or ‘chief’ (i.e. Mac Diarmada, Mág Uidhir, etc.); 5. Adjectival qualification of Ó/Ua surnames designating the ceann fine ‘head of family’ or ‘chief’ (i.e. Ó/Ua Briain, Ó/Ua Néill, etc.); 6. The construction Ó/ó saoirNéill; 7. The prepositions re and le before Ó/ó; 8. The Ó saoirNéill type with preceding ris/leis.

12730. Ó Riain (Gordon): Varia: I. 1. Two quatrains in Cath Maighe Rath.
In Ériu 63 (2013), pp. 145–151.
On qq. 18-19 of poem beginning Erig, a Chongail Macha.
12731. Ó Riain (Gordon): Varia: I. 2. An unrecorded scribal note in RIA 23 Q
16.
In Ériu 63 (2013), pp. 151–153.
13410. Ó Riain (Gordon): Varia: I. 3. IGT II 1258.
In Ériu 63 (2013), p. 152.
12732. McManus (Damian): Varia: II. On the 2nd sg. subjunctive of do-ní in Classical Irish.
In Ériu 63 (2013), pp. 155–158.
On the long vowel form do-néis.