

16172. Holmberg (Matthew): Triple utterances and curse-poles: a common form of northern European satire?

In Rhetoric and reality in medieval Celtic literature [Melia studies] (2014), pp. 75–93.

Points out the similarities in form and function between OIr. trefoċul and Norse niðstǫng, arguing in favour of a common origin for these two maledictory practices.
