

16237. Ó Riain (Pádraig): The notes of the Book of Armagh: a ninth-century witness to North Munster affairs?

In NMAJ 54 (2014), pp. 61–69.

Argues that the notulae are a transcript of notes made in situ by the abbot of Armagh in the period 835-845, the Munster section of which was later to be used as material for the composition of St. Patrick's circuit of mid-Munster in the Tripartite Life.
