In ZCP 49–50 (1997), pp. 847–877.

Argues that in the older versions of the Táin Latin words and phrases were used as a means of metatextual guidance, or narrative markers, and therefore they are part of the compositional technique of its compiler, who drew upon the Hiberno-Latin ‘eclectic’ exegetical method to create the Táin macro-text.
