

376. Ó Siadhail (Mícheál): Agus (is)/and: a shared syntactic feature.
In Celtica 16 (1984), pp. 125–137.

As followed by (1) a nominative absolute type of construction, (2) a verbal-noun / infinitive type of construction.

Classifications:

- C 3.6: Multilingualism, language contact: between Irish (incl. Scottish Gaelic and Manx) and English
- E 6.2: Syntax: Modern Irish

Indexes:

Words/Proper Names:

- agus (is) (= Engl. and)
- is (agus) (= Engl. and)