4360. Scottish Gaelic studies 22 (2006)

University of Aberdeen

Rev. by

Identifies and discusses personal names of certain or arguable Irish origin (Ab-niar, Adamnan, Bressal, Brón, Denna, Dengus, Fachl, Fergus, Finan, Fladgus, Reachtchride, Salfach, Ullan; Cuna, Cumen, Honor, Maethcor, Muoca, Ona, Onboth).

4362. Breeze (Andrew): Middle Gaelic Tuile and Toulouse.

In SGS 22 (2006), pp. 27–33.

ad Tuile in Acaill na senórach line 387 (as ed. by M. Dillon 1970 [BILL 5221]); argues it refers to Toulouse.

In SGS 22 (2006), pp. 35–85.

4364. Arbuthnot (Sharon): A note on ce(a)s 'coracle'.

In SGS 22 (2006), pp. 87–94.

Argues Dineen’s [Irish-English dictionary, 1927] 2. cea ‘coracle, etc.’ is a ghost-word, and traces its origin to Keating’s erroneous interpretation of the etymology of Uaincheas in FFÉ §27 (as ed. by D. Comyn and P. S. Dineen 1902-1914).

4365. Ó Macháin (Pádraig): Scribal practice and textual survival: the example of Uilliam Mac Muircheathd.

In SGS 22 (2006), pp. 95–122.

4366. Cheape (Hugh): The ethnology of the Celts: the history of an idea.

4367. Iwase (Hisami): A study of the feigned-illness motif in the Gaelic Snow-White.